

Current supported independent living vacancy in Bega, South East NSW

Nestled between rolling countryside and some of the best seaside locations NSW has to offer, the Bega Valley Shire offers abundance in the way of location. It is an engaging and welcoming community. Bega is often described as 'a community that cares'.

About Tulgeen:	Tulgeen has been the leading disability services provider in the Bega Valley for 40 years. We work with individuals, their advocates and the community to provide flexible, individualised supports for people with disability. Tulgeen offers; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In-Home Support – 24 hour or drop-in • Short-term accommodation- respite • Opportunities for active participation and community inclusion and • Supported employment opportunities in four Social Enterprises.
Location:	Maple Court Units, Union St, Bega, South East NSW.
Location features:	This spacious and secure one bedroom unit is in a quiet street in a block of villa units called Maple Court. Maple Court is centrally located and close to local shops, clubs and cafes.
General features:	This purpose built self-contained one bedroom unit has; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Open plan kitchen, living, dining area with a separate laundry • Spacious bedroom with a built in wardrobe • Open plan disability specific bathroom and • Reverse cycle air-conditioning
Site Layout:	There are three blocks of three units at Maple Court with one unit being the administrative office. Maple Court is set on a large landscaped block with a communal covered pergola BBQ area. There is onsite parking for wheelchair-equipped buses. A fully maintained vehicle is available for resident use.
Current residents:	There are six male clients and one female client aged between 50 and 70 years living at Maple Court. Current residents have a range of intellectual & physical disabilities.
Current Staffing:	Residents are supported with 24/7 access to skilled and experienced disability support workers. All workers are trained in supporting clients with complex support & behavioural needs, PART training & first aid.
Availability Date:	Available now.
Eligibility:	To apply for this vacancy, you must have Supported Independent Living in your NDIS Plan.
More information:	To arrange an inspection or to express your interest, call the team at Tulgeen on 02 6499 0800 or email NDISservices@tulgeen.com.au

Front of Unit

Back of Unit

Accessible Bathroom

Kitchen